A New Year's Resolution for a Great 2020!

Thank you for an amazing year! BCM may be temporarily closed, but we have exciting plans for 2020. Our New Year's resolution is to bring a bigger and better museum experience to all of our visitors.

So that we can prepare for upcoming events, education and entertainment, we have closed the museum to visitors. The museum will re-open on Tuesday, February 4 with all your favorite BCM family activities and a new exhibit on the art of beading. Be sure to follow us on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram to see behind-the-scenes updates of our progress.

Support BCM with a Tax-Deductible Gift

It's a few days into 2020, but it's not too late to make a New Year's resolution that can keep working all year long.

When you resolve to make a gift to Behringer-Crawford Museum's 2019 annual appeal, you'll . . .

. . . keep curious kids learning with Chippie's Sensational Science Labs.

. . . keep the music playing at Music@BCM's summer concerts.

. . . keep the artists painting in the park at fresh ART.

. . . keep the Holiday Toy Trains chugging around the tracks.

Donate now and help BCM keep its commitment to preserving the history and heritage of Northern Kentucky.

Join the Excitement at BCM as a Volunteer

While the holidays are an especially busy time for BCM's volunteers, we need your time and talent year-round. If you enjoy history, seeing the behind-the-scenes operations of a museum or working with children, BCM has many opportunities for you. You can assist with kids' activities, be a part of the Music@BCM concerts, share a special talent or serve in many other important roles. For more information or to volunteer, CLICK HERE or contact Education Director Kim Gehring-Cook at education@bcmuseum.org or (859) 491-4003.

Get Your Ticket Now for the 2020 Two-Headed Calf Awards

The 2020 Two-Headed Calf award recipients will be honored at an awards dinner and gala at 6 p.m., Thursday, April 9 at Northern Kentucky University's Votruba Student Union Ballroom. The event will include dinner, cocktails, live music, a silent auction, raffles and free parking, in addition to the fun awards celebration. All-inclusive tickets are $100 per person or $800 for a table of eight. For reservations, call 859-491-4003 or email Executive Director Laurie Risch at lrisch@bcmuseum.org.

Sharing Art in the Commonwealth

BCM Curator of Collections Jason French hits the road to our state capitol, where he shares some pieces of art on loan from BCM's collection to be displayed at INKY Frankfort, a new home for advocacy for Northern KY.

Apply for a Paid Spring Internship!

Communications Internship at BCM

College juniors and seniors majoring in communications, journalism, marketing and related fields - here's your chance to get hands-on, professional experience while you are still in school. Behringer-Crawford Museum has an opening for a paid communications intern funded by the Scripps Howard Foundation.

The successful applicant will spend 10-15 hours per week during the spring, summer or fall 2020 semesters working in the museum's marketing department creating awareness and "buzz" about the museum and its programs via a variety of communication strategies. Strong writing skills, creative thinking and computer literacy are musts.

Interested? Click HERE to learn more about how you can build your resume in a professional, non-profit environment! Undergraduate students at the junior or senior level from the University of Cincinnati (UC), Xavier University (XU), Northern Kentucky University (NKU) or Miami University (Miami) majoring in communications, marketing, and/or public relations are eligible to apply.
