Happy New Year from BCM

We've got big plans at BCM for 2020. So that we can get ready for a new year of exhibits, events, education and entertainment, we're closing the museum to visitors from January 6 to February 3. The museum will re-open on Tuesday, February 4 with all your favorite BCM family activities and a new exhibit on the art of beading.

Rush to See the Trains Before They're Gone!

There is still time to see Holiday Traditions@BCM! The trains, lights and holiday spirit continues through Jan. 5 with over 250 feet of track with interactive kid-friendly buttons, revealing hidden surprises - perfect for getting the kids out of the house during winter break. Apply for a Paid Spring Internship!

Communications Internship at BCM

College juniors and seniors majoring in communications, journalism, marketing and related fields - here's your chance to get hands-on, professional experience while you are still in school. Behringer-Crawford Museum has an opening for a paid communications intern funded by the Scripps Howard Foundation.

The successful applicant will spend 10-15 hours per week during the spring, summer or fall 2020 semesters working in the museum's marketing department creating awareness and "buzz" about the museum and its programs via a variety of communication strategies. Strong writing skills, creative thinking and computer literacy are musts.

Interested? Click HERE to learn more about how you can build your resume in a professional, non-profit environment! Undergraduate students at the junior or senior level from the University of Cincinnati (UC), Xavier University (XU), Northern Kentucky University (NKU) or Miami University (Miami) majoring in communications, marketing, and/or public relations are eligible to apply.
