Learn the History Behind the Art
Brown Bag Luncheon: The Art of Tambour Beading
Thursday, Feb. 20, noon

"Tambour beading and embroidery is best described as a... dance of the hands executed with the precision of the Tango and the grace of the Waltz."

Robert Haven, owner of Bead Embroidery And Design Studio in Lexington, KY will discuss this centuries-old art at BCM. Bring your own lunch – let us provide the drinks, dessert and discourse! $3 for BCM members, $10 for future members. Registrations requested: <https://BrownBag22020.givesmart.com> or (859) 491-4003.

Talking Tambour Beading with Robert Haven

Curator's Chat with Jason French

Kings' and queens' embroidery, 1920s flapper dresses, bridal gowns and red carpet fashions - all enhanced by the little known art of tambour beading. Curator of Collections Jason French chats with Robert Haven, one of few people in the U.S. who can teach the technique. Haven will be leading workshops and speaking at BCM's Brown Bag Luncheon this week.

4-Day Tambour Beading Workshop

Feb. 22-23 and Feb. 29-Mar. 1

Sign up for First Workshop Here

This high-fashion, hand-beading technique will be taught by beading master Robert Haven, owner of Bead Embroidery and Design Studio in Lexington, KY. Haven has taught master classes in beading around the world and his work has been featured on ABC's "Good Morning, America." He will conduct this four-day workshop on two consecutive weekends: February 22 and 23 and Feb. 29 and March 1. Sessions run from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturdays and 1-5 p.m. on Sundays. Cost is $380 for BCM members and $400 for non-members, which includes all tools and supplies. Classes are limited to 10 participants. Please bring a packed lunch on Saturdays. This will be Haven's first of three tambour beading workshops offered at BCM. To see all of the available workshop dates and times, please click below.

Jack Moreland to Receive Special Two-Headed Calf Award

Jack Moreland, president of Southbank Partners, will receive the Kenneth and Eileen Harper Special Recognition Award as part of Behringer-Crawford Museum's 2020 Two-Headed Calf Awards for outstanding service to the community.

A distinguished educator and community leader, Moreland is a former public school science teacher, principal and superintendent who served as interim president of Northern Kentucky University and superintendent of the Covington Independent Schools. He was instrumental in helping to merge the state's community colleges into the Kentucky Community and Technical College System and served as its interim chancellor.

Moreland currently is president of Southbank Partners, Inc., a community and economic development organization that coordinates activity with the cities that lie along Northern Kentucky's bank of the Ohio River, and the Newport Southbank Bridge Company, which operates the Purple People Bridge. He is a trustee emeritus of Behringer-Crawford Museum.

The award will be presented at the 2020 Two-Headed Calf awards dinner and gala on Thursday, April 9 at Northern Kentucky University's Votruba Student Union Ballroom. Also receiving Two-Headed Calf awards are:

- Mary Lou and the late Carroll J. "Mac" Heidrich of Fort Mitchell - Service to the Community: Generosity and Vision Award
- Cathy Wolff, first-grade teacher at Beechwood Elementary School in Fort Mitchell- Service to Learning: Academic Excellence and Innovation Award
- Author and historian Robert Webster - Service to History: Scholarship and Public Service Award

The awards event will include dinner, cocktails, live music, a silent auction, raffles and free parking, in addition to the fun awards celebration. All-inclusive tickets are $100 per person or $800 for a table of eight. For reservations, visit: <https://e.givesmart.com/events/gdF/> or call 859-491-4003.

Attention Kroger Shoppers!

Now, every time you shop at Kroger, you can support BCM with the Kroger Community Rewards Program

When you buy your groceries at Kroger, you can designate a percentage of the price of your purchases to be donated to BCM – at no cost to you - by registering for the Kroger Community Rewards Program. All you need is your Kroger Plus card.

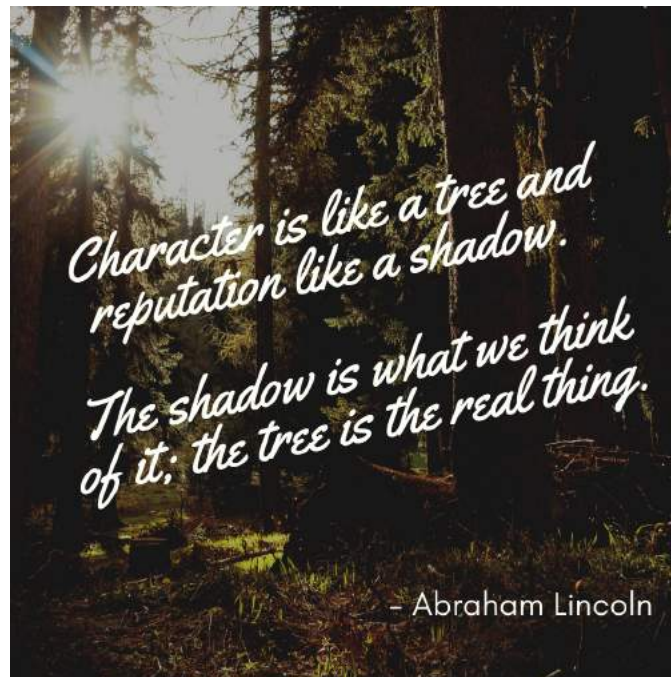

Here's how:

- Go to <http://www.kroger.com> and sign in to your account.
- Under "My Account" on the left side of your screen, click on "Community Rewards."
- Under "Find an Organization," enter BCM's NPO (non-profit organization) number, "HE811," or search for "Behringer-Crawford Museum."
- When the museum's page comes up, click "Enroll."
- Once enrolled, every time you shop at Kroger, simply swipe your Plus Card or enter your phone number.

If you don't have a Kroger account, go to <http://www.kroger.com> and register, which requires some basic information, a valid email address and a Plus card. Don't have a Plus card? Pick one up at any Kroger store.

All you have to do is shop at Kroger and swipe your Plus Card to make an impact on BCM and your community!
