Showing Love for Our Community Leaders

Announcing the 2020 Two Headed Calf Award Winners

Drumroll please... Behringer-Crawford Museum has announced the recipients of its tenth annual Two-Headed Calf Awards for outstanding service to the community.

The honorees and their award categories are:

Service to the Community: Generosity and Vision: Mary Lou and the late Carroll J. “Mac” Heidrich of Fort Mitchell

Mary Lou and Mac Heidrich have dedicated decades to volunteer leadership at Redwood Rehabilitation Center where both are Redwood Trustee Emeritus. The Heidrichs started volunteering in 1960, when their son, Gary, was only two years old, and Mac served as one of the first presidents of Redwood's parent group. The Gary Heidrich Fund at Redwood was created in honor of their son, and serves as a testimony to their commitment to helping children and adults with severe and multiple disabilities achieve independence.

Service to Learning: Academic Excellence and Innovation: Cathy Wolff, first-grade teacher at Beechwood Elementary School in Fort Mitchell

Cathy Wolff has been an first-grade teacher at Beechwood Elementary School for more than three decades. She has been recognized by parents and peers for her caring and innovative procedures, using songs, dance, poetry and plays to engage and educate thousands of elementary school students during her career. She was selected by her fellow teachers to represent her school in receiving the National Blue Ribbon Award in Washington, DC and has twice been a recipient of the Golden Apple Award from the Northern Kentucky Education Council and the Northern Kentucky Chamber of Commerce.

Service to History: Scholarship and Public Service: Author and historian Robert Webster

Robert Webster is president of the Kenton County Historical Society and author of several books on Northern Kentucky history, including "Beverly Hills Supper Club: The Untold Story Behind Kentucky's Worst Tragedy." He is a frequent contributor to both Northern Kentucky Heritage magazine and to the "Our Rich History" column of the NKY Tribune. He is a three-time winner of the Kentucky Historical Society's "Outstanding Publication" Award and is a frequent speaker for civic and community groups throughout the region.

The 2020 Two-Headed Calf award recipients will be honored at an awards dinner and gala at 6 p.m., Thursday, April 9 at Northern Kentucky University's Votruba Student Union Ballroom. The event will include dinner, cocktails, live music, a silent auction, raffles and free parking, in addition to the fun awards celebration. All-inclusive tickets are $100 per person or $800 for a table of eight. For reservations, call 859-491-4003 or click below.

Enjoy Lunch and a Lesson

Brown Bag Luncheon: The Art of Tambour Beading

Friday, Feb. 21, 6-8 p.m.

BROWN BAG LUNCHEON:
The Art of Tambour Beading
with Robert Haven
Thursday, Feb. 20, noon

RSVP at <https://BrownBag22020.givesmart.com>
or (859) 491-4003.

Kings' and queens' embroidery, 1920s flapper dresses, bridal gowns and red carpet fashions - all enhanced by the little known art of tambour beading.

Tambour beading is a hand-beading technique performed with a hook in a holder which holds a shortened French Cornelli needle, used to bead onto fabric that is stretched over a frame. Once considered a social pastime in the 1700s, tambour beading has grown into such a highly kept secret among fashion designers that there are very few people in the U.S. who can teach this technique.

Robert Haven, owner of Bead Embroidery And Design Studio in Lexington, KY is one of these few and he will discuss this centuries-old art at BCM. Bring your own lunch – let us provide the drinks, dessert and discourse! $3 for BCM members, $10 for future members. Registrations requested: <https://BrownBag22020.givesmart.com> or (859) 491-4003.

First Tambour Beading Workshop Begins Sat., Feb 22.

Have you wanted to learn how to bead, but couldn't find the time or right teacher? BCM has a wide array of workshops from beginning to advanced from the best teachers in the beading business! Find the right date and class for you and sign up today!
